

You are kindly invited to the presentation of the recently published book by Professor Mihály Fülöp

'The Unfinished Peace.

'The Council of Foreign Ministers and the Hungarian Peace Treaty of 1947'

and a round-table discussion on the European peace after World War II under the patronage of H.E. János MARTONYI, Minister of Foreign Affairs

Mihály FÜLÖP

is Professor of International Relations at the University of Debrecen, Member of the Scientific Commission on International Relations and Secretary of the Joint Hungarian - Romanian Commission on History of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences; former Associate Director of Studies at Sorbonne, Paris, Fulbright Scholar at the Georges Washington University, John Campbell National Fellow at Hoover Institution on War, Peace and Revolution, Stanford University, Vice-President at Selye János University, Révkomárom, Slovakia, Director a.i. of the Hungarian Institute of International Affairs.

Professor Fülöp has published widely on European peace settlements, as well as on border and minority rights issues. His textbook (co-author: Péter Sipos) on the 'History of Hungarian Diplomacy in the Twentieth Century' published in Hungarian is widely used in the courses on diplomatic history at Hungarian universities.

The present monograph, already published in Hungarian, French and Romanian is his first book in English, distributed by Columbia University Press.

Agenda

14:00 Welcome Address by

Gábor Náray-Szabó, Director General of the Library and Information Centre of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences

14:05 „No one is a prophet in his own country” - Introduction of the author and his books by

Tibor Palánkai, Professor, Corvinus University,
Member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences

14:15 Book presentation by

Zsolt Németh, Minister of State for Foreign Affairs
„Today's Hungarian Diplomacy in the context of the Paris Peace Treaties”

Tibor Frank, Professor of History, Director of the School of English and American Studies, Eötvös Loránd University: „The Unfinished Peace”

György Schöpflin, former Jean Monnet Professor, Member of the European Parliament:
„After 1945: Cold Peace, Cold War”

15:00 Panel Discussion on the European peace after World War II

Moderator:

Tamás Németh, Secretary General, Hungarian Academy of Sciences,
Member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences

Introduction:

Mihály Fülöp, Professor, University of Debrecen
„The origins of the European political and territorial order”

Panelists:

Tibor Frank, Professor, Eötvös Loránd University

Zsolt Németh, Minister of State, MFA

Tibor Palánkai, Professor, Corvinus University

György Schöpflin, Professor, Member of the European Parliament

Venue: Conference Room
Library and Information Centre of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences
Budapest, V. Arany János u. 1.
Date: Friday, May 3, 2013, 14:00-16:00

RSVP
by April 25th 2013
to Ms. Edina Szikszai, LIC - HAS szikszai.edina@konyvtar.mta.hu 411-6100 / 669